The Gould girls say they all left the park at 10 o'clock, and arrived at the Vanderbit avenue station of the Union Elevated Railroad one hour later.

from Ped and Hide Therein.

Frederick Schrandth, Richard Conway and Herman Schwenn were held in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day for trial on a charge of vagrancy. Officers Albrecht and Hughes saw the three men acting suspiciously at the corner of Hopkins street and Throop avenue about 2 o'clock yesterday morn-

When the men saw the officers coming they started down the street on the run, with Albrecht and Hughes close behind them.

When the fleeing men reached 224, a two-story frame house, occupied by the family of Frank Busse, they burst in the door and rushed inside. The officers heard screams and dashed in, believing that murder was being committed. In a bedroom on the second floor they found the three men lying side by side in the bed, covered with the quilt and all snoring lustily. On the floor on one side of the bed was Busse, while his wife was on the other side, both greatly astonished.

Conway and his companions had burst into the room, they said, and thrown them out of bed without giving any explanation. Mr. and Mrs. Busse told their story in court this morning.

Some time ago the Aldermen passed a resolution to have William street paved. Last Monday Alderman Guilfogle had another resolution passed, resolution gain of William street.

An investigation then revealed a scheme to have the Twelfth Ward Park extended across William street, and to do this it would be necessary to purchase property owned by Senator Coffey. Park Commissioner Squiler was opposed to enlarging the park.

With the paving of William street, would not be extended over his properly. Hence Alderman Guilfoyle's resolution, Mayor Schleren this morning had an interview with Coffey and Guilfoyle. The Mayor pialnily told Mr. Coffey that William street must be paved. He then offered Alderman Guilfoyle the choice of resolution passed last Monday or having it vetoed. Mr. Guilfoyle chose the former alternative. The real estate deal is now declared on for the present.
